Artistically Executed Pamphlet Tells How $17,000,000 Has Been Spent on Improvements to Road.

"What would you do with $17,000,000?"

This question is asked on the first page of the artistic and excellently written booklet, entitled "Modernizing a Railway," which has just been issued by the Chicago Great Western Railroad, "The Corn Belt Route." The writer questions whether any person could use more than $1,000,000 readily, and then proceeds to detail how that railway used its vast amount in bettering conditions of travel. New steel cars, interiocked crossings, automatic safety signals and regular track inspections are some of the safety-first ideas involved in the betterment. Upon each of its 1500 miles there was spent $11,000 in permanent improvements. A brief history of the road and the dis-"What would you do with $17,000,000?" of the board. At the meeting of the directors, the Supreme Court Justice was elevated to the presidency.

John A. Baker was elected first vice president, Dr. P. Morris Murray second the road's service and artistically conceived decorative sketches, are contained in the booklet.

At the conclusion of a hearing yesterday by the House Committee on Rules on a resolution offered by Representative Howard, of Georgia, in which the charge was made that many national banks, notably in the South, charge usurious rates of interest, announcement was made that John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency, would be asked to discuss the subject before the committee on Friday. ommittee on Friday.

Representative Campbell, of Kansas, a Republican member of the committee, made it known that he would make spe-cial inquiry of the Comptroller as to whether national banks have exacted ex-funds deposited with them.

"The statement of the Comptroller discloses a diabolical condition in some of our banking institutions," said Mr. Howard. "It practically imposes upon Congress the sacred duty of letting in the gress the sacred duty of letting in the of his charges. This is necessary that the country may know the pawnbroker and skinflint bankers operating under a Federal charter. Separate the sheep from the goats in the banking business."
